Obama’s Executive Actions on Immigration
Community Workshop
Prepared and presented by
Elizabeth Alamillo, Esq.

Please join us for an informative workshop on
President Obama’s Executive Actions on Immigration

Date: February 17th, 2015
Time: 5:15 PM
Location: Mt. View High School Media Center

On November 20, 2014, President Barack Obama announced executive action that will allow many individuals living in the United States without status to be granted deferred action, making them eligible for employment authorization.

Come and listen to the following topics that will be discussed:

What is Deferred Action?

Who is Eligible under the expanded DACA?

How is this different from the original DACA?

When can individuals apply for DACA?

What is DAPA?

When can individuals apply for DAPA?

This workshop is being presented by Attorney Elizabeth Alamillo. Ms. Alamillo is a 1999 alumnus of Mt. View High School. Ms. Alamillo obtained her Bachelor of Arts degree in International Development Studies and Chicana/o Studies, with a minor in Political Science from UCLA.

Ms. Alamillo went on to obtain her Juris Doctorate degree from Loyola Law School in 2008. She was admitted to the State Bar of California in 2008 and has been practicing immigration law for the past seven years.

After being admitted to the Bar, Ms. Alamillo worked for the non-profit organization, the Immigration Center for Women and Children. She then worked for the Law Office of Enrique Arevalo, a small private immigration firm, representing individuals in removal proceedings. Earlier this month, she opened her own immigration law practice, the Alamillo Law Firm.